

This is not a Ballet

Fiona Léus Lambert

Fiona Léus Lambert is an artist of our time. Working with many of the materials available in modern life.

Film and choreography, both time based art forms are at the heart of Fiona Léus Lambert's ballet prints. Rows of images, photographic studies of movement are reworked stills, shot using Super 8 film during rehearsals for 'Eidos Telos' by William Forsythe.

'This is not a Ballet' is a series of limited edition C-type prints, capturing the ballet's atmosphere and the beauty of movement in still form.

CIRCLE is a Fine Art Gallery located in North Cornwall.

The gallery represents a diverse group of artists living in the UK and Europe who have a strong personal style. We are committed to showing contemporary art, which above all is visually acute, thoughtful and beautiful.

Lucy Thorman and John O'Carroll run the gallery with a professional but relaxed vibe, in keeping with west coast gallery convention. John O'Carroll is a visual artist with an onsite studio.

The gallery is a cool and minimal space which is continually evolving, showing emerging and well known artists, alternating group and solo exhibitions, focusing on fresh and innovative art.
