ABOUT CIRCLE

CIRCLE is contemporary art gallery, located in North Cornwall on the Atlantic Highway (A39). The gallery features a diverse range of contemporary art from local and international artists, covering two floors.

CIRCLE's distinct style is shaped by a tribe of artists and artisans who live and work in country and coastal places - in short, nature. We are a principled gallery that show paintings, prints, photography, sculpture and fine crafts which are imbued with the integrity of the maker.

From a city dwellers perspective, landscape inspired art practice is often dismissed as romantic and unquestioning. However, at CIRCLE we believe art born from a true dialogue with nature is life affirming, ever present and continually evolving.

Gallery directors Lucy Thorman and artist John O'Carroll have an eclectic approach to sourcing and presenting artists with a strong personal style and excellent craftsmanship are prerequisite. The galleries core group are rotated throughout the year with guest artists who are included in solo, duo, mixed shows with bio-monthly online features.
